Dear Members and Friends of KirkWood,

We are entering a very exciting time in the life and worship of our congregation. As many of you realize, Bruce Knight's Outreach committee has been visiting other churches to observe how some of the fastest growing congregations worship, do Christian Education, engage in mission activities and so on. I want to personally thank the many individuals who devoted much time to travel to churches here on the Peninsula as well as on the Southside. Your insights will help the Session determine what we need to do to tweak our services so as to increase our appeal to 20-30 age group as well as maintain the strengths of our Reformed Presbyterian tradition.

The Session received the Visitation Team's report on May 21st and will pray about it until the June 21st session meeting where it will probably make some changes to begin in September, 2011. Remember we will have a blended worship service at 10:00 AM on Sundays beginning July 3rd.

I invite you to join me and the members of Session in a season of prayer as we seek to be faithful to the Lord in our worship services as well as in all of our ongoing ministries. The Session's goal will be to have worship services in place which glorify God and are inviting to others in our community to come join us on a lifetime of love and service to the good Lord.

It's going to be a time of growth for all of us.

So I'll see you in church.

Michael

The Seal of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.)

The seal of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) is a registered trademark. The seal is comprised of the symbol, the basic components of which are cross, scripture, a descending dove at the upper part of the cross, and flames on either side of the lower part of the cross, and the name of the denomination, Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), encircles the symbol. It was designed by Malcolm Grear and Associates.

The Seal: A Closer Look

The seal of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) is a symbolic statement of the church's heritage, identity, and mission in contemporary form. Its power depends on both its simplicity and complexity, as well as its traditional and enduring qualities.

The basic symbols in the seal are the cross, Scripture, the dove, and flames. The dominant structural and theological element in the design is the cross — the universal and most ecumenical symbol of the Christian church. The cross represents the incarnate love of God in Jesus Christ and his passion and resurrection. Because of its association with Presbyterian history, the Celtic cross was chosen as a model for this contemporary rendering of the ancient symbol.

In experimenting with the basic lines and shapes of the cross, the contour of a book began to emerge in the horizontal section, and the two center lines of the cross became the representation of an open book. This integration of the horizontal dimensions of the cross with the book motif highlights the emphasis which the Reformed tradition has placed on the role of Scripture as a means of knowing God's word.

The slightly-flared shape of the Celtic cross also makes possible the transforming of the uppermost section into the shape of a descending dove. As a symbol of the Holy Spirit, the dove is intimately tied to the representation of the Bible, affirming the role of the Spirit in both inspiring and interpreting Scripture in the life of the church. The dove also symbolizes Christ's baptism by John and the peace and wholeness which his death and resurrection bring to a broken world.

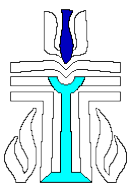

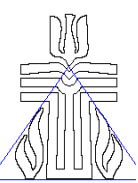

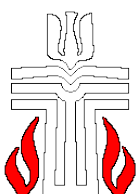

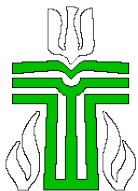

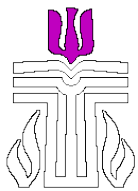

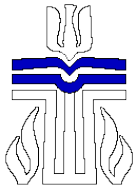

Beneath the image of the book is the suggestion of a lectern or pulpit, which captures the important role of preaching in the history of Presbyterian worship.

Integrated into the lower part of the design are flames which form an implied triangle, a traditional symbol of the Trinity. The flames themselves convey a double meaning: a symbol of revelation in the Old Testament when God spoke to Moses from the burning bush and a suggestion of the beginning of the Christian church when Christ manifested himself to his apostles at Pentecost and charged them to be messengers of the good news of God's love.

The triangle also suggests the nature of Presbyterian government, with its concern for balance and order, dividing authority between ministers of the Word and laypersons and between different governing bodies. This understanding of the church was based in part on an important idea in Reformed theology, the covenant, which God establishes with people to affirm God's enduring love and to call us to faith and obedience to Jesus Christ.

Looking more closely at some of the visual components of the design, viewers may discover elements that seem to fuse with some of the more obvious theological symbols. In the shape of the descending dove, for example, one might also discern in the body of the bird, the form of a fish, an early-Christian sign for Christ, recalling his ministry to those who hunger. For some, the overall design evokes the calligraphy of Hebrew and Greek manuscripts. Others have seen a baptismal font or a communion chalice (cup).

In 1 Corinthians, Paul described the church as a body with many members, illustrating the pluralism of the church and the many gifts which God gives to its members. So also the seal's individual parts, when taken together, form an encompassing visual and symbolic unity, while not exhausting the richness of possible interpretations.

Christian Education

Message from Jeannine

It is the Holy Spirit working through so many volunteers that make this church conduct its vision so efficiently. Our teachers will be recognized during each service on June 5.

A picture album for the 2010-11 school year is being created. It will include children's Sunday school, Trunk or Treat, Christmas pageant and Easter Egg Hunt. Please submit pictures of intergenerational and children's events to Jeannine Scott by June 15th. When completed, it will be added to the KirkWood Library.

Help is needed to start a children's library in Room 2. Do you have decorating ideas or a talent for organizing and making lists? Join our library team! Please contact Jeannine Scott.

Remember me, Family Devotion time:

Summer time is rapidly approaching and there will be twelve weeks with no school! This is a mixed blessing for many parents as we look for creative ways to fill the time. Imagine That! by Mike and Amy Nappa gave me some ideas that might also work for your family.

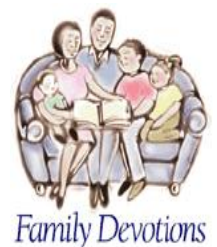

Create a new dessert. What favorites can you combine in a new way? Ever heard of cake pops? Which of God's creations can you look at in a new way?

Pray in a new place. You have been meaning to clean out the closet anyway, right? Maybe you will pick to pray while you are sitting in the garage during a rain shower or before you pull out of the driveway.

Have a word of the day. Pick a word; try to use it in every conversation for the day. Share stories of the best use. Did you smile when you heard someone else using 'your' word? How does God feel when you spread His Holy word?

Play "What If..." What if your furniture was made of marshmallows? What if cars could fly? What if you had a million dollars? What if your family put God first?

Dig for definitions. Choose a random word from the dictionary and make up a definition. Give bonus points for creativity and closest to actual definition. Remember God gives meaning to our lives.

KYG Friends,

It is hard to believe that the end of the school year is here. We are sure all of you want to join us in wishing our graduating friends "Good Luck" and "Congratulations" as they head off to their next big adventure. We will miss having them with us in the next year. Join us in wishing God's blessings for them. We also want to extend a warm welcome to the rising 9th graders who will be moving up from Fisher Kids. We are looking forward to having them with us next year. Plans are being made for next year's activities.

Please let us know your thoughts on what you liked and what you did not like. What you missed doing this year, and what you would like to add for next year. This is YOUR group and we would like to hear from YOU!

If you are joining us on the Mission trip to Hosanna, remember that we have an important meeting on June 5th at noon. We will be going over the trip plans and passing out the required paperwork for the trip. If you have not paid your balance and/or given us your t-shirt size...please do it now. We hope to finish the wheelchair ramp that we started this summer. Please let us know if you are still interested in helping with it over the summer, and we will let you know dates and times.

Again, we want to say how much we enjoy working and fellowshiping with all of you. Each of you is a blessing to us. You are a wonderful and joyous group. We hope you enjoy your summer and will return to KYG in the fall.

In His Name,
Robin, Kirk, and Jamie

Congregational Care

Congregational Care is still in need for people of any age to help out with the many happenings and needs at Kirkwood. In particular, we have key needs in the areas of Member Care (staying in touch with our members), a History Team to record our life at KirkWood, folks to help with fellowship events (setup, decorations, clean up, etc.) KirkWood is such a busy, fun place to be and everyone can make a difference in the life of the church. Please consider joining our committee or call Scott Coverdale (867-7748) or Helene Watson (867-9389) to find out how you can help with specific needs.

In preparation for the church picnic CC needs help on Saturday, June 11th at 9:00AM to set up canopies, tables, and chairs on the church lawn. There is also a need for coolers and gas grills. If you can help, please sign up in the Narthex.

On June 12th come to the spectacular and super sizzlin' picnic lunch on the lawn. Wear your picnic clothes to church and meet us out front for a great afternoon of fun and fellowship. Please bring a dish to share – there will already be hot dogs and hamburgers on the grill and soft drinks and water in the cooler waiting for you to enjoy. In addition to the picnic food, there will be games for little ones, music from the KirkWood Boys, and more! Please sign up in the Narthex so we have an idea of how much food to put on the grill, but if you forget to sign up, come anyway; we always have extra. Congregational Care will be collecting donations at the picnic to help offset the costs. See you there!

Baseball season is in full swing and that means it's time for an outing to a Tides game in Norfolk. We will be going to the Harbor Park on July 23rd. Please be on the look out for more information and there will be a sign-up sheet in the narthex.

Looking ahead, our annual Sundae Sunday Social will be in August. Summers at KirkWood seem to fly by in a hurry. Be ready, so you don't miss out on every minute of the fun and fellowship!

KirkWood Silver

Summer scheduling is incomplete at press time. Please look for upcoming summer events in the bulletin.

JUST THE LADIES! We sure did have a great time in Kiptopeke State Park for the 2011 KirkWood's women's retreat. Although bad weather threatened us all weekend, it never came about. Cool breezes, low humidity, and fantastic temperatures helped set the scene for the thirty ladies to focus on being a woman of noble character. We studied Proverbs 31: the three temptations to avoid and one obligation for the king to keep in mind, and the epilogue to the book of Proverbs. Studying the traits, biblical examples, and ways we can individually improve as women from verses 10-31. The Saturday night dramatic representations were amazing beyond words. Ladies: don't forget to reflect on your noble qualities. We ended the weekend with a service on the beach. A reminder of how much God loves us as we are and will help us to grow in ways that He sees fit. Let's keep growing and look forward to getting together next year.

MARTHA CIRCLE: We have concluded our study by Max Lucado just in time for our summer break. Our final meeting for this year is Thur. June 2, at 6:00 PM, when we meet for a taste of Thai at Thai Erwan, Shady Banks Shopping Center on Hampton Hwy. to wrap-up our year together and make plans for fall. We invite friends to join us for fun, fellowship, and friendship as we encourage each other in our individual walk with our Lord. Join us on the 2nd, and put us on your calendar for September when we will come together again.

SARAH CIRCLE: Our regular meetings will resume in September, but we will get together for lunch out and summer fellowship on the second Tuesday of each month, June 14th., July 12th., and August 9th. All KirkWood ladies are welcome to join us. Please watch for details in the bulletin for times and locations. Call Wanda Birch at 868-8651, if you have questions.

Seeing Love In Action:
From the Spirit-filled Early Church To A Spirit-filled Small Group
by Gina Williams

They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer. Acts 2:42

My small group (2 or More) just finished a study of the first 12 chapters of Acts titled "Acts 1-12: God Moves in the Early Church" and God certainly moved us during those 15 weeks of study. Our thrifty facilitator (Barbara Ball) found the study on the internet for just $1; to say it was a bargain is an understatement. While we spent time discussing the early church, how they were so filled with the Holy Spirit, acting on faith, performing miracles and giving inspired speeches declaring the gospel in the face of ridicule, persecution and death, and seeing many believers being added to their numbers, we saw similar acts being done in our own group of believers. This year, 2 or More grew to a group of 8 (for years being only 3 or 4 in attendance); three of our members are members of other churches, – devoted Christians of different denominations – who have shared so many pearls, adding depth and fullness to our discussions. We've kept an open door policy, even being flexible by having our children and grandchildren join us during the week of Spring Break. Five youth, ages 8 to 16, blessed us with their faith, insight and honesty during that meeting.

The laying of hands was practiced in my small group on more than one occasion. I had a headache during one meeting and before leaving, it progressed into a migraine and my group put their faith into action by "laying of hands" on me and prayed over me. I was even anointed with "the oil of gladness" that one member had with her. My migraine didn't go away immediately, but I went home and slept for 3 hours and found significant relief when I awakened. I was so thankful to the Lord and my group!

On two occasions, my group welcomed a visiting neighbor who was unaware that a meeting was taking place and each visitor joined us and we prayed for her. One particular visitor came at the beginning of our session. We invited her in and soon learned of something troubling her greatly. After listening a while, a united decision was made to join hands and pray on her behalf and before we knew it, we had put our lesson into action. The lesson of that morning was on believing God for a miracle, interceding on behalf of our fellow believers --- like the believers who interceded on Peter's behalf when he was in prison and James had just been put to death, and Peter was freed by an angel --- AND not being surprised when God delivers! Peter's miraculous escape (Acts 12:1-19) is amazing and inspiring because we know that God can still deliver us today from what tries to hold us captive and/or steal our joy and our lives.

That morning, we said goodbye to our friend over whom we fervently prayed, wiping tears away (that's me), and trusting God will deliver her "from evil." No more time was left, but it didn't matter to any of us. We had "acted out" our lesson. We laughed and were so glad we let the Holy Spirit be our guide that morning.

If you haven't experienced a small group that comforts, surprises, heals and brings you closer to God, try one next fall when they start up, after a summer break.

Here's a great prayer that has been answered: By this fall, April Mershon will take on the responsibilities of coordinating our Discipleship Group Ministry. She will share her ideas at an end-of-the-year meeting for facilitators on Saturday, June 4th at her home in Hampton. Thank you, April! May God continue to bless you with courage, wisdom and faith and I look forward to the changes that take place as we see God's glory unfold at Kirkwood – in groups, small and large and in corporate worship!

Love in Christ,

Gina

"Again, truly I tell you that if two of you on earth agree about anything they ask for, it will be done for them by my Father in heaven. For where two or three gather in my name, there am I with them." Matthew 18:19-21

Habitat for Humanity

Exciting News! The 2011 house is ready to begin construction in July. Look for more information and "crew" sign-ups on the Mission bulletin board. Jim Birch will be coordinating our participation so let's give him our full support. We may also be asked to provide lunches to the volunteers at the site on our workdays, so that is another way to help.

"Sign the Stud" -- KirkWood has supported Habitat for Humanity for several years with our time and talents. The Mission Committee is providing a way for everyone to show their support for the 2011 house. Look for a Habitat 2x4 in the Narthex and sign it. These 2x4's will be used in the construction of the house. If you wish to make an additional contribution, a check can be made to Kirkwood with "Habitat" on the note line.

Bike Riders: A group of KirkWoodians (KirkWood Krew) has been meeting for several years on Saturday to bicycle together for fellowship, fitness, and to enjoy God's great outdoors. Our outings are generally in 3 categories: multi-day rides usually on bike trails, day events usually within a 1-hour drive with a ride of varying from 20 to 60 miles, and local Saturday morning rides around Poquoson, York County, and Williamsburg (25 Arba-miles). A favorite ride is from Yorktown to Williamsburg and back on the Colonial Parkway with a stop for a snack in Williamsburg. We ride at a social pace of 12-14 mph with plenty of stops and no one is left behind. We welcome any additional members to the group. Our local Saturday rides begin from the church at 8 A.M. Whoever shows up can set the route and distance for the day. We can do several loops back to the start point to accommodate any time constraints and riders not ready for longer distances. We also send out reminders by email. If you would like more info or be placed on the email reminder list, contact Arba Williamson (867-9289), or Rae Lyn Dobson at KirkWood (766-0343).
